General Election - 8th June 2017

It is vital that UNISON members make their voices heard

Have conversations your colleagues, friends and family. Make sure they know how important this election is for public services.

A Conservative government with an increased majority will implement more cuts, resulting in an ever more challenging time for public services and those that provide them.

Fighting for Fairness and Equality

Everyone is entitled to be treated with dignity and respect. The ability to live and work without prejudice is a fundamental right, regardless of your background, colour or sexual orientation.

UNISON members have set up groups for people who have interests in common, and who have traditionally been under-represented in many organisations. These groups are called self-organised groups and cover women, black members, disabled members and lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender members. For more information, please contact the Branch.
